Enrico Falbo – Il Giorno del Richiamo Estatico (VULP-0081)

A Netlabel Day 2016 Special Release

Single Il Giorno del Richiamo Estatico is the very first release from Enrico Falbo for Vulpiano Records. The single includes two cosmic and droney trance rituals, a promising beginning for this artist on Vulpiano; he has also self-released four EPs and one album previously.

About

Vulpiano Records was launched in November 2009 by synth musician Marilyn Roxie. Initially launched as a place to house great unsigned and independent artists Roxie had come in contact with through music blogging and late nights on Last.fm, the concept behind Vulpiano quickly expanded.

It's simple: we offer quality free music, with specialties in ambient, electronic, and acoustic. All artists are linked by their spirit of independence and experimentation. Vulpiano is based in San Francisco but our artists are international. We hope you enjoy and share the music.
